BRITISH COLUMBIA ROUNDUP

VANCOUVER (CP)—A dispute revolving around payment for president Lloyd Whelan of the Vancouver Labor Council (CLC) was decided in Mr. Whelan's favor Tuesday night. A stormy session of the council produced a one-vote margin for the council executive from 285 voting delegates.

Mr. Whelan, whose position as president of the council is without pay, was proposed by the executive for the paid post of assistant to the council. There was no vote on that Tuesday night.

Instead, delegates at one of the biggest council meetings in recent months voted 143 to 142 in support of a motion by the labor council executive to accept the resignation of third vice-president Mel Kenmis. Mr. Kenmis had protested the decision to put Mr. Whelan on the payroll.

Alberta Social Crediters Go All Out To Defeat Massive Conservative Bid

EDMONTON (CP)—With the Alberta election only a day away, the Social Credit party Tuesday night staged a mass rally in an effort to kill at the roots a Progressive Conservative bid to form the next government. It was the biggest rally of the current campaign.

The Conservatives for the first time in Alberta's history are going all out to defeat the Social Credit government, elected by a large majority in 1955. The Conservatives were without a leader here for 22 years before the election last fall of W. J. C. Kirby as provincial head.

The provincial party was brought to life in Alberta following the election of John Diefenbaker as prime minister.

Penticton Meatheads Plant Hammerhead

For tourist-conscious Kelowna, the discovery of sharks in the placid blue waters of Lake Okanagan could spell disaster.

But it has proven to be a scary meathead trick! Many people gasped with horror when a hammerhead shark was found on the beach near the Aquatic yesterday morning. But the Courier's editorial staff smelled something "fishy" after an anonymous tipster telephoned local news sources and immediately hung up the receiver when reporters started asking questions.

As had already been suspected, the shark was "planted" on the beach. Culprits were Penticton Jaycees who were retaliating over Kelowna Junior Chamber's theft of a set of elk horns at the recent convention in Nelson.

A spokesman for the Penticton Jaycees said that Kelowna gets too much publicity over Ogopogo, and they wanted to convey the impression the shark would scare Ogopogo away from the Regatta City.

Larry Magee, president of Penticton Jaycees, admitted he was behind the prank. Now Kelowna is wondering what to do with the shark. Someone suggested tossing it back into Penticton's Irrigation ditch, as the hammerhead would provide some much-needed fertilizer for the fruit crops.

"A hammerhead gag is typical of a bunch of meatheads," commented a spokesman for Kelowna Jaycees.

The frozen shark was shipped to Penticton via refrigerated truck from Vancouver. Later, publicity-conscious Jaycees motored to Kelowna and placed it on the beach in the dead of night.

LIBERACE WINS LIBEL CASE AGAINST CASSANDRA, PAPER

LONDON (AP)—A high court jury awarded American entertainer Liberace about $20,000 damages today for libel by the London Daily Mirror.

The jurors decided after 3½ hours of deliberation that a story in 1956 by Mirror columnist William N. Connor implied that the pianist was a homosexual.

The implication was untrue, the jury held, and the phraseology used by Connor in the column was not "fair comment," as claimed by The Mirror.

RCAF To Use Local Airport During Royal Pair's Holiday

Kelowna airport will be used extensively by the RCAF aircraft when the Queen and Prince Philip spend two days at Lake Pennask.

The Royal couple will rest at the secluded, private fishing resort 50 miles west of Kelowna Sunday and Monday, July 12 and 13.

Tight security regulations will be enforced, an RCMP spokesman said today.

"We'll have a number of planes around," he said, adding that under tour regulations no aircraft may approach within three miles of any residence at which royalty is visiting. There will be a state of alert for RCAF and RCMP units throughout the province, during the Royal Tour in B.C. It was learned in a dispatch from Victoria.

Originally scheduled to be in Kelowna, the Queen and Prince Philip had hoped to make his report in December.

Dean Chant says the year-old three-man commission received 3,500,000 words in briefs during public hearings which ended in May.

Coupled with surveys, research projects, questionnaires and literary, national and international education trends the total material under study is something in excess of 10,000,000 words.

In Victoria and at UBC a special staff is analyzing, correlating and researching the mountain of literature.

Dean Chant's questioning is continuing.

Fulton Charges Pearson Smear

OTTAWA (CP)—The Liberals today pressed in the Commons for a House committee investigation of the Malton expropriation case involving chief government whip John Pallett, prompting a heated debate reminiscent of the turbulent 1956 pipeline battle.

A motion by Mr. Pearson to send the case to committee for decision as to whether Mr. Pallett's conduct was derogatory to Parliament brought a charge by Justice Minister Fulton that the Opposition Leader was attempting to smear the government whip.

Mr. Fulton, contending the motion was out of order, suggested Mr. Pearson had "fiddled around," taken a "shrinking-violet" approach to the question and that he lacked the fortitude to bring a formal charge against Mr. Pallett.

Obviously stung by this, Mr. Pearson said the "slurring personal attack on him showed Mr. Fulton was worried. Then he suggested that Prime Minister Diefenbaker had been the one "fiddling around," by showing "an obvious reluctance" to table the recent Exchequer Court judgment that brought the case into public focus.

COULDN'T INTERRUPT

A cry of "another dictator" and "closure"—terms typical of the pipeline debate—greeted Prime Minister Diefenbaker as he tried unsuccessfully to interrupt Mr. Pearson on a point of order. At one point, Mr. Pearson accused the prime minister of trying "to halt the debate."

Mr. Diefenbaker, rising to speak just before the luncheon adjournment, reiterated his challenge to Mr. Pearson to make a specific charge of wrongdoing against Mr. Pallett.

He said that if this were done he would immediately ask the House to set up the committee investigation.

The CCF supported the Liberals in their call for a committee investigation. A debate arose on whether Mr. Pearson's motion to send the matter to a Commons committee for examination was in order. Justice Minister Fulton contended it was out of order, suggesting an attempt was being made to "smear" Mr. Pallett.

APPRAISER NAMED

The Exchequer Court said June 4 that a realty appraiser appointed by the government on the recommendation of Mr. Pallett, MP for the Toronto-area riding of Peel, had testified that he had been instructed by Mr. Pallett to put as generous a valuation as possible on properties expropriated by the transport department at Malton, Ont.

R. S. Clark was a former political campaign organizer for Mr. Pallett.

Mr. Pearson said he would make a comprehensive statement.

Weather Grim For Royalty

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Capricious Atlantic weather is giving Royal Tour planners their biggest headache only a day before Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip arrive to start their tour of Canada.

But heavy Atlantic fog and threatening cloud the last two days has seriously disrupted airline flights in and out of this city.

Shrum Power Rate Accepted By Board

VICTORIA (CP)—The B.C. Power Commission has accepted rate change recommendations made by the Shrum royal commission. Mines Minister Klerman, acting chairman of the publicly-owned utility, has announced.

A major change calls for use of a single residential rate and elimination of certain other rates. The change, effective in July, will be reflected in electricity bills sent out on and after Aug. 1.

Adjustment in commercial rates will result in billings based upon the customer's maximum energy requirement from month to month, rather than on the present basis of yearly demand. Householders installing major appliances will no longer find themselves in a new rate block. The single residential rate will continue to apply.

Mr. Klerman said the adjustments will mean an increase of about 1.4 per cent in overall revenue and will add $88,000 to commission income during the remaining nine months of the fiscal year.

WORLD TRAVELLERS GAS-UP FOR NEXT TRIP

Globe-Trotting German Couple Here With Two-Wheeled Transportation

By AL CAMPBELL
Daily Courier Staff Writer

Round the world on a motor-cycle. That is the aim of Hans and Eva Muecke—and it looks as if they are going to make it.

When the couple putted into Kelowna Tuesday morning they had already made their way about 35,000 miles.

Their adventures on the open road began in September, 1954, when they departed from Cologne, Germany, bound for Australia and Greece on a 750 c.c. Zundapp bike, formerly used by the German army.

Hans, an expert mechanic, had previously been employed as a driver of a large tourist bus, until one day he "got sick of driving them around, and decided to be one."

BECOMES TENT
The trailer the globe-trotting pair chose, while small, is certainly not a puny vehicle. Hans won a bet Australia by towing a 10-ton diesel truck with it.

The cycle is complete with a sidecar, and tows a compact utility trailer, which can be converted to a tent on wheels when desired.

It holds all the cooking utensils, photographic equipment, clothes for the couple—"everything from overalls to evening dress," and almost all the comforts of home. No bathtub, however.

Equipped with travel information from a major oil company, the couple has so far completed roughly the following itinerary: Austria, Yugoslavia, Greece, Turkey, Iran, Pakistan, India, Ceylon, Burma, Malaya, Singapore, Australia and Japan.

They landed in Vancouver last fall and spent the winter in Vanderhoof, where it was so cold the plexiglass cockpit on the sidecar cracked in several places.

COLD AND HEAT
Northern B.C. was a far cry from some of the other places they have travelled. For instance, when Eva drove the machine 250 miles in one day—120 degree heat. At this time they were in a hurry to catch a boat from Singapore, and could only stop for short intervals.

The duo had only $300 and the $95 machine when they left Germany. They arrived in Australia 20 months later with $280.

"Living is cheap in Asia," was the understatement Hans made. LIKE OKANAGAN

Asked how they like it in the Okanagan, the couple answered in unison: "We really like it here. We would like to stay but we must get moving before it gets too late in the year."

The Mueckes plan leaving soon for the United States, Central and South America and "perhaps Africa."

The tanned and healthy couple share their duties fairly evenly when on the road.

Hans does most of the driving and manual labor while Eva cooks and faithfully records the day's events in a diary.

WRITING BOOK
The couple has several thousand photos of places they have been and a great deal of motion picture footage.

They intend collaborating on a book on their adventures when they return to Germany "providing we don't stay in Africa."

Hans has already done several newspaper articles and in that way gaining a certain amount of writing experience.

Hans, who works at "almost any job" in the various places he visits, has no definite schedule. He often does not even know which country he will visit next.

The travellers are not really trying to prove anything with the trip; they just "like to travel". But they are proving something: "A rolling stone gathers no moss."

HARRY JEROME
... ace sprinter

Pan Am Preview Slated For Sat.

The tenth annual interior track championships at Kelowna this Saturday might be billed as the "warm-up" meet for the Pan American Games trials in Vancouver on June 30, July 1.

Fleet-footed Harry Jerome will lead "B.C. Striders" in Vancouver Olympic Club's bid for supremacy in the meet, as a member of the 36-man team, Jerome is being hailed as possessing the most potential of any runner, the country has ever produced.

At the lower mainland high school track championships this year he shattered three Canadian marks when he ran the 220 in 21.9 seconds. Later he bettered this performance by sprinting the same distance in 21.1 at a Washington meet.

BROAD JUMPER

Included in the Strider lineup

Dave Stafford, who consistently hits 22 feet in the broad jump event.

Salmon Arm high school and Vancouver North Shore were further entries yesterday, bringing the number of track teams to 11. The competitor list has already surpassed the 130 mark, and could approach 150.

Officials of the meet stated today that entries have surpassed all expectations. The heats to be run off Saturday afternoon will constitute a track meet in themselves. Three heats will be run off in the men's 100 and 440; four heats in the 220; three in the women's 100; two in the 219 seconds. Later he bettered this performance by sprinting the same distance in 21.1 at a Washington meet.

The finals will be run off in City Park Oval, starting at 6 p.m.

Salt Lake City Bees, who have battled their way from the Pacific Coast League cellar to fourth place in 11 days, are working on another victory streak.

The Bees made it three in a row Tuesday night, trimming Vancouver Mounties 4-1. It was the second straight for the Bees over the Mounties, and represented their 11th victory in 14 starts since June 6.

The decision left the Bees five games behind first-place Sacramento Solons, whose game with Seattle was washed out.

In other league action, Spokane Indians blanked San Diego Padres 6-0 and Phoenix Giants whitewashed Portland Beavers by the same count.

Dick Hall whipped the Mount-Phoenix 3-0 on Monday. He lost a shutout in the seventh when Jim Pagliaroni clouted a home run for Vancouver's only run.

Chris Nicolosi, who struck out seven batters and didn't issue a walk, Al Norris punched out a solo homer in the second inning to give Spokane all the runs it needed, but the Indians still collected five more in the fifth frame.

Eddie Fisher, Phoenix rookie, became the first 10-game winner of the season by shooing the Beavers on one hit. Fisher struck out seven and walked three. Billy Wilson smashed a solo homer for the Giants in the sixth.

SPECIAL HOCKEY MEETING PLANNED FOR CITY HALL

Acting-mayor Donald Horton will attend a special Okanagan Senior Hockey League meeting in City Hall tonight, representing city council.

Board of Trade representation has also been sought by the league president, Robert Gilhooly of Kelowna, to discuss a Vernon plan to keep senior hockey alive in the Okanagan.

The Vernon plan, according to Mr. Gilhooly, suggests selling season tickets at a reduced rate with the co-operation of the city councils, boards of trade and some service clubs.

Elks' Stadium To Be Aglow

The lights will be on in Elks' Stadium tomorrow night. The city's electrical supervisor, A. E. "Ted" Guy, said this morning that the lights were being tested, with the exception of the main lights, which have to be done by the means of a special chart, arriving from Toronto.

And the Labatts' first guests under the lights will be Summer-Mac, in a regular league fixture, starting at 8 p.m. The ball club executive, and the formal opening, originally scheduled for last Saturday, was called off, and won't be held until hard work, which started early May R. F. "Dick" Parkinson is this spring, and the realization will enough to officiate at the ceremony.

"It wouldn't be the same without Mayor Dick," said club president today. "He has done so much for baseball and the ball park, that we feel he should have the honor of performing the ceremony."

As far as Mr. Guy is concerned, the lights being turned on will represent the end of a big problem for him and his staff. For the past few weeks, they have been confronting numerous difficulties without any experience in this type of work to fall back on, and "it's been tough."

Should the aiming charts not arrive in time, the lights will have to be aimed roughly for the game, and lined up properly afterward, but there will definitely be lights, Mr. Guy said.

For coach Hank Tostenson, the ball club executive, and the formal opening, originally scheduled for last Saturday, was called off, and won't be held until hard work, which started early May R. F. "Dick" Parkinson is this spring, and the realization will enough to officiate at the ceremony.

The Labatts, with a few games in hand, are setting out to over-haul the leaders, following their haul over Trail, which they will have to stay on the win-streak, too, if they wish to catch the galloping Oliver OBC's, who have lost only two games, the same as the Labs.

On Saturday night, the Labs host Vancouver Longshoremen.

Big Newk Washed Up? Ask Giants' Sluggers

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

There were snickers last spring when manager Mayo Smith figured the big fellow in his Cincinnati pitching staff might be Don Newk.

Newk? Sure he won 27 in 1956, but he was washed up, hadn't even been able to win 20 over two seasons since.

So who's the ace of the Red Sox? Big Newk, winner of six straight, all complete games, with a 3.00 earned run average. Chicago Cubs 5-2, St. Louis Cardinals swept a two-night pair from Philadelphia Phillies 8-1 and 5-2.

It was Newcombe's seventh victory of the season, matching his total for last year when he lost 13. This one slipped the Giants two games behind the National League leading Milwaukee Braves, who came off with a 5-4 victory over Los Angeles Dodgers.

Pittsburgh Pirates tightened their hold on third, just a game behind the Giants, by beating Chicago Cubs 5-2. St. Louis Cardinals swept a two-night pair from Philadelphia Phillies 8-1 and 5-2.

Cleveland Indians are riding their hottest streak of the season and Cal McLish is back in stride, but still trying to shake a shutout jinx.

The big right-hander, whose lone whitewash performance in the majors came eight years ago, pitched the Indians to their seventh straight success and a full-game lead in the American League race with a 4-1 victory over Boston Red Sox Tuesday night.

It was the fifth time this season McLish, 33, has come out victorious, his second shutout. This time he missed by inches when Marty Keough's seventh-inning drive ticked outfielder Rocky Colavito's glove and got away for a home run.

New York Yankees helped along by defeating Chicago's second-place White Sox 5-1. Other games, Detroit at Baltimore and Kansas City at Washington, were rained out.

The Indians plunked the Red Sox back into a last-place tie with Washington on a two-run homer by Dick Brown in the fifth inning against loser Ted Wills (2-2).

McLish's lone shutout in the majors, incidentally, came in the National League when he was working for Chicago Cubs in 1951.

The Yankees moved to within a single game of fourth-place Baltimore behind the four-hit pitching of Art Ditmar (5-4). The Sox scored in the first inning on a double by Nellie Fox and Sherm Lollar's single, then managed only a pair of singles by Norm Cash, in the fourth and sixth, the rest of the way. Ditmar walked but one, struck out four. Billy Pierce (7-7) was the loser.

Casper Favored For Can. Open

By W. R. WHEATLEY

Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL (CP) — The last

warm-up rounds for the Canadian open golf championship come up today and all hands

certainly Bill Casper—were hoping the weather would warm up as well.

The rotund Californian who won the U.S. Open Sunday, beating rain deluges and semi-squalls

in his rounds at Mamaroneck,

N.Y., hopped off a plane Tuesday, was whisked to the Isles-more course and promptly declared: "I thought I was being set down in Alaska."

It was cold at Islesmore—in the 50s—along with blustery winds, heavy clouds and a few weak peeps of the sun.

BETTER WEATHER COMING

Prospects today were that the temperature might get up to 65 and that there will be gradual warming for the start of the 72-hole tournament Thursday.

The draw shows an entry list of exactly 150. The field will be cut to 100 lows and ties after Friday's play and to 60 lows and ties after the third 18-hole round Saturday.

Casper, something of a popular choice here to wrap up his second successive national title, turned in a practice 71 Tuesday over the 6,605-yard Islesmore layout.

Among Casper's touring mates considered likely to upset him are Art Wall, Jr., this year's winner of the Masters and top-money man on the tour, Bob Rosburg, Doug Ford, Ken Venturi,

Tommy Bolt and Paul Harney.

Wes Ellis is the defending CPGA champion, took 75.

champion and is not being overlooked. Ellis won at Edmonton last year.

CANADIAN WINNER

The only Canadian ex-champ in the field for this $25,000 open is veteran Pat Fletcher of Royal

Montreal, who ended a 40-year

American stronghold by winning in 1954 at Vancouver.

Stan Leonard of Vancouver and Al Balding of Toronto, both are regarded as the best prospects for a repeat by a Canadian.

Leonard was both good and terrrible in Tuesday's practice round, taking a 33 going out and a 45

coming back.

Young Bud Loftus of Calgary came up with a sparkling 70 for his practice tour, nearly holing out a 140-yard approach shot at the par-four seventh.

Bill Mawhinney of Burlington,

Ont., and formerly of Vancouver, had heart-breaking luck with his putts but went around in 73.

Henry Martell of Edmonton,

Wes Ellis is the defending CPGA champion, took 75.

Frisco Giants Recall Chucker

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — In an effort to tighten their relief pitching, San Francisco Giants Tuesday recalled Billy Muffett from Phoenix in the Pacific Coast League.

Muffett, 3-2 for Phoenix, was optioned to the Giants' farm club after having been acquired in a trade with St. Louis last winter. The Giants sent reliever Don Zanni (6-9) and catcher Roger McCardell to Phoenix.

Yankees Call Up Farm Club Player

NEW YORK (AP) — New York Yankees recalled 21-year-old infielder Fritz Brickell from their Richmond farm club of the International League Tuesday night, thereby filling the vacant spot on the 25-man roster.

Brickell, who has been playing second base for the Virilians, has seven homers, 28 RBI's and a .251 batting average.

Trotters Open Iron Curtain

CHICAGO (AP) — Abe Saperstein and his Harlem Globetrotters basketball team finally have cracked Russia's Iron Curtain.

Saperstein announced Tuesday his professional Negro cage team will play nine games in Moscow's Lenin Central Stadium during a seven-day period beginning July 6.

The Globetrotters, however, will play their own travelling opponents, San Francisco Chinese Basketeers, and not any Russian foe.

World Shot Record

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — Parry O'Brien broke his own world record in the shot put Tuesday night with a throw of 63 feet, eight inches. His listed record is 63 feet, two inches, set in Los Angeles in 1956.

O'Brien's performance Tuesday night was witnessed by 65 persons at Mount San Antonio College here.

Hockey Fans Wait To Pick Up Tabs

By PETER SYNOWICH
Canadian Press Staff Writer

BELLEVILLE, Ont. (CP) — Hockey-loving citizens of this eastern Ontario city should know within a week exactly how much they will have to pay in taxes to replace money taken from the city treasury for their world champion hockey team.

Municipal Affairs Minister Warden is also awaiting completion of a detailed audit begun a month ago. He has promised a judicial inquiry if the audit indicates one is necessary.

Another awaiting the result is Drury S. Denyes, 40-year-old city manager and manager of Belleville McFarlands. He was suspended as city manager last month after Mayor Gerald B. Hyde reported a misuse of city funds.

"We have no reason to believe that the money has been stolen or embezzled by the responsible official," the mayor said, "but we know it has been terribly mispent without any authority."

A preliminary investigation by the city's auditors showed the hockey club and the Belleville Memorial Arena had an accumulated deficit of $102,609 at the end of 1958. Salaries totalling $37,000 had been paid to hockey players from the city treasury during the last three years.

Now a detailed investigation is being carried out by the city's firm and a representative of the municipal affairs department.

Mr. Denyes, a bank employee before serving overseas with the RCAF during the Second World War, was city treasurer for several years before being appointed city manager also in June, 1957, to 20 players and each got about $1,000 a year. He became manager of the McFarlands in 1956 when the team entered the eastern Senior A division of the Ontario Hockey Association. He went to Europe with the club when it won the world hockey title last March. It is understood no city funds were used to finance the trip.

Ike Hildebrand, the team's playing coach who played hockey the last three years, he says, and increase in Vancouver, says "I never saw any books but players received their cheques everybody just kept saying everything from Mr. Denyes—there were 16 thing was alright."

Operation Success Durocher Better

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP) — Leo Durocher, former major league baseball manager, was in satisfactory condition today after undergoing an operation for removal of a kidney stone.

A Mayo Clinic spokesman said Durocher probably would be discharged away with hockey, he charged from Methodist Hospital said. "Council should have toward the end of the week. His illness will force him to cancel plans to take part in a fund-raising oldtimers game in St. Louis Friday campaign before the hockey team day involving members of the old went overseas, now will probably St. Louis Cardinals Gashouse have to meet the deficit in their taxes.

SUSPENDED

Mr. Denyes was suspended by a vote of 10 to 5 at an emergency city council meeting. One of his supporters was Councillor Claude Tice, a member of the arena commission. "I'm behind him 100 per cent," said Mr. Tice. But Councillor William Argue, who sponsored the move to suspend the city manager, took a different view.

"It's obvious that Denyes got carried away with hockey," he said. "Council should have showed more concern about hand-dling the team."

The city's 28,000 residents, who cancel plans to take part in a fund-raising oldtimers game in St. Louis Friday campaign before the hockey team day involving members of the old went overseas, now will probably St. Louis Cardinals Gashouse have to meet the deficit in their taxes.

Ingemar Doesn't Impress In 11th Hour Workouts

By JACK HAND
GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP) —

To put it mildly, Ingemar Johansson was not impressive. Perhaps it was an off day for the unbeaten Swede. Perhaps he was holding back for fear of giving away secrets. Whatever it was, it left many boxing writers cold.

Johansson, in the home stretch of his training for the June 25 title match with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson at Yankee Stadium, showed little fire in his work Tuesday.

After sparring Bill Johnson with some stinging left jabs, he confined himself to trying to block punches. Some he didn't block, especially when Clarence Floyd, a New York light-heavyweight crowded him.

"It was one of those days," said Johansson.

The European heavyweight champ used his right sparingly as he has done in all his workouts. Still, they insist the right is the big punch — the punch that knocked out Eddie Machen in one round. A slugger devoting all his time to a jab is something like Mickey Mantle spending spring training practicing bunts.

Whatever it is, time is running short. Counting today's work, Ingemar has only four more days of boxing before he finishes Saturday.

When is he going to throw the right? What is he saving it for? Maybe Patterson will find out June 25.

Bombers Open At Lions In WIFU's 1959 Schedule

WINNIPEG (CP) — A revised 1959 schedule for the Canadian Football League's western division issued Monday by football commissioner Sydney Halter makes four changes from the schedule issued last January.

British Parents Approve System After Spending Time In School

By M. McINTYRE HOOD
Special to The Daily Courier

LONDON — In a junior school at Leigh Park, near Portsmouth, over 60 mothers and fathers of the pupils have gone back to school to find out how their children are taught under the present-day methods of education. While the children played outside in the playground, the parents sat down at the school desks, picked up pencils and paper, looked at the blackboard, and the lesson was on.

These special classes for parents were established at their own request, because so many of them found themselves floundering when their children asked their assistance with homework. They found out very quickly that methods today are very much different from what they were when they went to school.

MADE REQUEST

These parents wanted to know more about their children's education.

Moslem Custom In Cairo Broken By Hilton Hotel Hiring Women

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN

CAIRO (AP) — An American-managed hotel is quietly fostering a social revolution in the Arab world—the emergence of women into business and professional life.

The Nile Hilton hotel, a striking architectural combination of modern and ancient Egyptian motifs, opened a few months ago. It employs young women and girls as waitresses, elevator operators, floor personnel and clerks—about 200 in all. It is the first time in the Arab Middle East that women have been employed for this sort of job.

The influence of this move is far out of proportion to the size of the hotel or the numbers involved. Cairo has for centuries been an intellectual capital of the Arab world. An idea which wins acceptance in Cairo will eventually spread to other Arab countries.

The new 11-storey hotel has already made an impression on Cairo life. Taxi drivers take you out of your way to point it out to you.

IDEA LIKED

The coffee shop is open around the clock and the serving staff—except for the overnight shift—is all women. This has become a gathering place for Cairoites for their pre-theatre or post-theatre snacks. They apparently like the idea of being waited on by young women.

The hotel's experiment had President Nasser's blessing: The employment of women fits in with his own campaign to liberate Egypt's young people of both sexes from centuries-old restrictions.

The girls say they enjoy making money of their own. One, an elevator operator, says the extra income helps her and her husband maintain a nice home. Another elevator operator had to drop out of university this year for lack of money but will be able to return next year.

One of the head waitresses, also a widow with two children, said she took the job mostly to have something to do, and also to help the advancement of Moslem women in general.

MOSTLY MOSLEMS

Nearly all the girls are Moslems. How do they get along with men customers?

"We don't have to accept dates from customers," one of the girls, a sleeveless latter-day Cleopatra, confided. "What we do outside is our own business, and once a while I do give a date to a boy who is nice looking. But most of the time I just flirt back, and turn them down in a laughing way. They don't seem to mind." As a matter of fact, they seem to love it.

Actor And Bride Spend Honeymoon In Laurentians

By M. McINTYRE HOOD

Special to The Daily Courier

LONDON — Paul Massie, Canadian actor who has made a high reputation for serious work in films in which he has had starring roles, will spend part of his honeymoon in the Laurentian Mountains north of Montreal, after a trip across the Atlantic in a cargo vessel which carries a few passengers.

Currently starred along with Nigel Patrick, Yvonne Mitchell and Michael Craig, another Canadian actor, in the Rank thriller "Sapphire". Mr. Massie and his 23-year old Scottish fiancée, Ann McPherson, have chosen July 4—three days from Paul's 27th birthday—for their wedding at the London Church of St. Mary, the Botolphs.

After two weeks of motoring in Scotland, they leave Glasgow on July 20 aboard the passenger-carrying cargo ship "Lismoria" for Montreal, to continue their honeymoon in a fisherman's cottage in the Laurentian mountains north of the city.

Before they return to England, however, there is to be a family reunion for the Masse family (Massie is Paul's stage name.) In a tiny church on the shores of the Lake of the 16 Islands, where no wedding has ever been solemnized, accountant Godfrey Masse is to be married. The service will be conducted by his father, the Rev. Emile A. Masse, a French Baptist Minister, and Paul will act as best man.

"Getting married seems to be catching in our family," says Paul Massie. "One of my three younger sisters, all of whom will be at my brother's wedding, was herself married recently."

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW

Good Jupiter influences govern money matters now, but conjunctive lunar aspects indicate a need for conservatism. In other words, operate soundly. Don't try any "get rich quick" schemes. FOR THE BIRTHDAY If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that if, since the beginning of this year, you made constructive plans for job advancement and an improvement in your financial status and then followed them conscientiously, the next 12 months should bring, if not complete, at least partial—and very happy—fulfillment of your aims. Keep forging ahead, since you are currently in a fine cycle for achievement. You should note really strong upturns within the next month; also in late October, and for a period of at least six months, beginning in mid-December.

currently in the celestial spotlight; will have planetary sanction again in October and in December. If you happen to be engaged in creative work, look for an opportunity to capitalize on your talents early in 1960. Make plans in mid-December, however. A child born on this day will be endowed with a magnetic personality and fine capabilities, but may incline toward restlessness and procrastination.

Diefenbaker Says West Powers Should Cement Geneva Talks

By GRAHAM TROTTER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

PRINCETON, N.J. (CP)—The Western powers should resist the temptation to abandon forthwith the negotiations at the Geneva foreign ministers conference, Prime Minister Diefenbaker says.

Addressing the 22th commencement exercises of Princeton University, which bestowed on him an honorary degree of doctor of laws, Diefenbaker told an audience of 5,000: "Western rights are clear and the Western cause is just, and it is to be hoped therefore that the principal Western negotiators will continue to exercise patience in probing every possibility of making even minor progress in reducing the area of disagreement which separates the East from the West."

Blind Teacher Writes Books

REGINA (CP)—A former Saskatchewan school principal who is writing two books on religious subjects says being blind is no deterrent. "I usually have five volunteer readers every week who do my research," says Victor E. Norlund. "They do all the work; I do all the thinking."

A tall, 73-year-old Protestant, Mr. Norlund favors teaching "some religion" in the schools. He was interviewed here during a lecturing tour of the western provinces, and said he hopes to have his books finished this year.

of laws, Diefenbaker told an audience of 5,000: "Western rights are clear and the Western cause is just, and it is to be hoped therefore that the principal Western negotiators will continue to exercise patience in probing every possibility of making even minor progress in reducing the area of disagreement which separates the East from the West."

The Geneva talks had at least shown "how modest must be the expectations and hopes of the Western world" in such negotiations. They also had demonstrated that the Western powers are "united in their determination not to abandon their rights or the people of West Berlin."

TEN OTHERS HONORED Diefenbaker was among 11 persons receiving honorary degrees. In addition to the others, internationally known American contractor and U.S. delegate to the United Nations general assembly, received an honorary doctorate of humanities.

Diefenbaker was the sixth Canadian to be so honored by Princeton, the others including Governor-General Vincent Massey, Opposition Leader Lester B.

Signs And Symptoms Of Early Pregnancy

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Over the years we have discussed just about every type of sign and symptom except one. Today I would like to complete the list, so let's talk about the symptoms of pregnancy. Now don't laugh at this. The question of "Pregnant or not?" is the major importance to women and, of course, to their husbands. And it is a question that is not always easy to answer, at least not as quickly as the woman might desire.

SPECIAL TESTS

Special tests have been devised to help physicians determine the answers, but these usually require a certain amount of time. Usually, the possible parents are anxious to learn the truth. The following symptoms are generally a pretty good indication that a baby is on the way. The cessation of the monthly period is the most obvious. Yet, in itself, this is not always a dependable guide. Besides, other signs might appear even before the woman is sure that she has missed a couple of periods.

COMMON SYMPTOM

One of the most common symptoms is fatigue. This, of course, might simply mean that you aren't getting enough sleep, or it might be a symptom of some illness. But if you skip a period, and begin to feel lazy, it might be significant. Another sign of early pregnancy is a noticeable increase in the frequency of urination. Also, the breasts are likely to undergo a change. They will be sore and become much fuller than usual. If any of you women notice such a change, a closer examination is called for. Pay particular attention to the area around the nipple. If this is darker than it ordinarily is, it might indicate pregnancy. Sometimes constipation is present. And, of course, the traditional "morning sickness," if also present, just about settles the question.

ANY TIME

This "morning sickness," I must point out, can mean vomiting any time during the day, although many expectant mothers experience nausea upon arising. I don't mean to imply that these symptoms must be present in every case of pregnancy. But if they are, it's pretty safe to start selecting names.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A Worried Friend: I have a friend, seventy years old, who has been told she has cataracts starting on her eyes. I have noticed a lighter ring around her eyes. If this is true, how long will she be able to see? Answer: Cataracts develop at different rates in different individuals. Surgery is usually successful in restoring vision in these cases, even in very old people.

The bidding:
South West North East
2♣ Pass 2♣ Pass
2NT Pass 3NT Pass

Opening lead—king of spades. This hand was played in a duplicate match point pair game. At one table the bidding went as shown. The North-South pair were playing ace-showing in response to two bids, which accounts for North's two spade bids. Declarer won the spade lead with the ace. He had to decide at this point how best to utilize his only visit to dummy. Not knowing that their queen of clubs would fall if he led A-K, declarer led the ten and finessed. West grabbed the queen, peeled off five spade tricks, and South went down two—200 points.

But at another table one South player, by a series of bids much too gruesome to record, arrived at a final contract of six notrump. He also got the king of spades lead and won with the ace. This declarer had not good reason to finesse the club. Even if it succeeded, South reasoned, he would not be able to garner 12 tricks. So he decided to play a series of minor miracles to neutralize the only chance to bring home the slam.

At trick two he led a heart and finessed the queen. The "finesse" worked. Then, with fingers crossed, he cashed the A-K of clubs, dropping the queen.

With everything going along smoothly, and 12 tricks now certain, declarer made his bid for the thirteenth trick. He cashed the A-K-Q of diamonds. Everybody followed; this establishing dummy's seven as a trick. Dummy was next entered with the ten of clubs and the diamond was cashed, declarer disposing of his spade loser. And then, to add insult to injury, declarer led a heart from dummy, finessed the Jack, and spread his cards to claim all the tricks. So this particular declarer scored 1,470 points, doing a mite better than the previous declarer who was minus 200 points at three notrump with the same cards. He succeeded in making 13 tricks while the first declarer made only seven. It just goes to show that bridge is a scientific game.

B.C. Forest Industry Moves Towards Perennial Crisis

VANCOUVER (CP) — With the annual contract renewals official strike vote among British Columbia's 27,000 coast woodworkers set for next week, the province's mainstay industry is heading for what has become an annual crisis.

Labor Minister Lyle Wicks set the government-supervised strike vote Tuesday for June 25 after the policy committee of the International Woodworkers of America (IWA) rejected a conciliation board majority report endorsing wage increases proposed by 137 coast lumber firms.

The union has asked for a 20-per-cent raise in the basic pay of $172 a year. The majority report approved a management offer amounting to 12 cents over two years.

UNION VOTE
The union, which settled without a pay increase last year, has advised its members to reject the majority report. It is organizing its own strike vote in which members will be asked to say whether they approve or disapprove of the report and whether they would be prepared to strike if and when the executive thinks fit.

Result of the union vote will be known June 25. The labor department plans to tabulate the results of its vote the following day as soon as balloting is over and the outcome likely will be known that night.

In 1952 a 45-day IWA strike cost the provincial economy an estimated $155,000,000. Since then

PARLIAMENT

If his motion were ruled in order, the court judgment, he said, relates not only to the conduct of an MP but to government revenue and a cabinet minister as well.

The court said Mr. Pallett had argued that Transport Minister Hees had bound himself to accept the valuations of Mr. Clare, which were higher than those of transport department land agents.

"All we are asking is that this matter be referred to a committee so it can be investigated," Mr. Pearson said. "The whole matter should be cleared up."

Mr. Fulton said Mr. Pearson lacks the fortitude to bring a formal charge against Mr. Pallett. He said the opposition leader had "fiddled around" for more than a week with the matter, showing a reluctance to come to grips with it. This was a "tender-footed, shrinking-violet" approach.

"SMEAR" ATTEMPT
Mr. Fulton challenged Mr. Pearson to say how the case reflects on Mr. Pallett and to name what specific charges he has against the member.

"Under the guise of a so-called motion of privilege an attempt is being made to smear one of the members of this House," Mr. Pearson said.

Mr. Pearson said he is not afraid to pinpoint one specific charge.

Tight-Money In Canada

OTTAWA (CP) — A "tight-money" situation has existed in Canada since last October, the chartered banks have told the Senate finance committee.

W. T. G. Hackett, speaking on behalf of the Canadian Bankers' Association, said the money supply has been held virtually stable since last October after a considerable increase in 1958 because of the federal government's large amount of borrowing. Though the money supply now was stable, the demand for private credit had been increasing rapidly. Thus money was tight in relation to demand.

Mr. Hackett said there is widespread fear of inflation though it is not as great as last year, when the money supply had been increased 14 to 15 per cent.
